FACTS AND STATS

• More than 600 athletes from 40 countries will compete at the championships between 20 - 26 August.

• It’s the first time that the World Para Athletics European Championships and the European Athletics Championships will be held in the same city. This follows on from London which hosted last year’s World Para Athletics Championships and the IAAF World Championships.

• The venue is the Friedrich Ludwig Jahn Sportpark which has hosted an IPC Athletics Grand Prix since 2013.

• At the last European Para Athletics Championships in 2016 in Grosseto, Italy, Russia topped the medal table with 51 titles. An incredible 25 world records were broken during the Championships.
DID YOU KNOW

• 17 medallists from the 2016 championships return to this stage, including nine athletes who will be targeting a defence of their titles. They are Jo Butterfield, Richard Chiassaro, Aled Davies, Dan Greaves, Sophie Hahn, Mo Jomni, Maria Lyle, Isaac Towers & Richard Whitehead.

• The oldest member of the team is Stephen Osborne, T51 in the 100m and 200m, who is 55, while Northern Ireland’s Eve Walsh-Dann is the youngest member at just 16. She races in the T36 100m & 200m at her first major championships.
